

Sultana's Spars and Rigging

The large timbers that hold up Sultana's sails are known as SPARS. These include the main mast, fore mast, fore topmast, main topmast, course yards, topsail yards, boom, bowsprit, and jib boom. The cables and lines that hold the spars in place are known as the rigging. This includes the stays, backstays, lifts, vangs, and shrouds.